Conference Committee Loses No Time in Setting to Work on Tariff Bill, to be Reported in Two Weeks

What Party Leaders Have to Say About Payne-Aldrich Measure.

Conference Plan Passes the House by Almost Strict Party Vote.

Washington, July 10. (United Press)—House leaders say of the Aldrich bill, in part: Payne (Republican, New York)—"I was for the house bill when it passed the house. I have yet to be convinced of the importance of these amendments."

Clark (Democrat, Missouri)—"The Payne bill was bad, but the Aldrich-Smoot bill is worse. I believe the result of the conference will be the worst of all."

Townsend (Republican, Michigan)—"Some senate amendments assault the very foundation of true protective principle."

Fitzgerald (Democrat, New York)—"It is as bad a piece of legislation as it is possible to make."

Mann (Republican, Illinois)—"If the senate provisions, regarding print paper and wood pulp, are retained, I will vote against it."

Haudall (Democrat, Texas)—"The machine is in control. The trusts control the machine."

Martin (Democrat, South Dakota)—"The Payne bill was in the main features a revision downward. In most important particulars the senate amended our schedules upward."

Henry (Democrat, Texas)—"The Republicans never intended to keep their pledge of downward revision."

Harrison (Democrat, New York)—"It is the most iniquitous of a series of bad tariff bills."

Conference Committee.

With the meeting of the conference committee today the real tariff bill was placed under way. In accordance with a polite notice given yesterday Democratic members of the committee stayed away. It is expected the committee will take two weeks, as the corporation tax provision is to be written. One change will be exempting holding companies on the ground that the assessment of them would be a double taxation and might result in the supreme court declaring the entire tax unconstitutional.

No time was lost by the conference of the house and senate in getting together to map out the program for the session that must be held for the purpose of putting the finishing touches upon the tariff legislation. Although the difference between the two bodies are represented by 847 amendments, many of them are likely to be contested with bitterness. Chairman Aldrich, of the senate finance committee, and Chairman Payne of the house ways and means committee agree that it may be possible to reach an agreement within ten days.

The two leaders, however, are not so sanguine of their ability of getting the conference reports adopted speedily after they have been presented to both houses. The manner in which the house conference was selected by Speaker Cannon is occasioning much criticism in the house and an effort is being made to have Taft take part in the threatened controversy.

According to current report, Payne sought to have the Republican conference named in order of their seniority, as was done in the senate. The speaker chose the conference himself, ignoring Hill, of Connecticut, and Needham, of California. Calderhead, of Kansas, and Fordney, of Michigan, who were named in spite of the fact that they are outranked by Hill and Needham, are declared to be "stand-patters" of the most pronounced type.

The friends of Payne are authority for the statement that he did not consent to the Cannon selection until after he had entered a vigorous protest. It is currently reported that the two were engaged in a heated argument over the question before the house assembled.

In the House.

The tariff question has been shifted from both houses of congress to the conference committee.

After one hour and a half of debate the house, 178 to 151, made a rule whereby the 847 amendments of the senate bill were disagreed to, and the conference requested by the senate granted. Eighteen Republicans voted against the rule and one Democrat. The following Republicans voted against the rule: Davis, Minnesota; Good, Iowa; Gronna, North Dakota; Laughlin, Iowa; Hinchey, Nebraska; Hubbard, Iowa; Kendall, Iowa; Kinkaid, Nebraska; Lindbergh, Minnesota; Madison, Kansas; Miller, Minnesota; Morse, Wisconsin; Mudd, Kansas; Nelson, Wisconsin; Norris, Nebraska; Pickett, Iowa;

TOBACCO ACREAGE.

Washington, July 10.—The acreage of tobacco is estimated officially by the department of agriculture at 1,108,336 or 232,011 more than last year. The condition of the crop July 1 was 89.8, compared with 88.6 on July 1, 1908, and ten year average of 85.7.

Polindexter, Washington; Woods, Iowa. Broussard, of Louisiana, was the only Democrat voting with the Republicans for the conference.

When the house met at noon interest was at fever heat. The leaders on both sides had notified their respective forces to be on hand in anticipation that the tariff bill would come over from the senate. The summons were responded to almost without exception.

The debate at times waxed warm, and disclosed the fact that there were some Republicans in addition to the so-called "insurgents" who were yet to be pacified before they would give their votes on the final passage of the bill. The feature of the discussion was the appeal by Chairman Payne to his colleagues to send the conference to the senate unhampered by instructions. He promised to rigidly exact an explanation of every amendment made by the senate, in order that the house conference might report back a bill which would meet the approval of the majority and of the country at large. His appeal was granted.

The speaker announced the following as conferees: Payne, New York; Dazell, Pennsylvania; McCall, Massachusetts; Boutelle, Illinois; Calderhead, Kansas; Fordney, Michigan; Republicans, Clark, Missouri; Underwood, Alabama; and Griggs, Georgia, Democrats.

At 3:26 adjournment was taken until Monday, when a joint resolution providing for the submission to the states of an income tax amendment to the constitution will be considered.

In the Senate.

Washington, July 10.—During a session lasting nearly four hours, the Philippine tariff bill and the bill automatically continuing the Porto Rican budget were passed by the senate. Only a nominal resistance was offered by the minority to these measures. An amendment by Johnson, of Alabama, declaring that the intention of the United States was to eventually grant independence to the Philippines was opposed as being out of place on this bill, and was rejected. Culberson sought to limit the operation of the Porto Rican act to July 1, 1910, but his amendment for that purpose was defeated.

The senate entered upon an agreement to adjourn three days at a time until the next report on the tariff bill is ready for consideration and also not to enact any legislation when it does convene.

The senate received the official announcement of the death of Representative Cushman.

Campbell Infant.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Campbell, of Little's addition, lost their 15-month-old child yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. The child died of whooping cough and had only been sick a short time. The funeral took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Little's addition Methodist church. The services were conducted by the Rev. Garland and buried at Oak Grove.

BOOKS OF HIRAM SMEDLEY ARE ABOUT ALL AUDITED

Work of auditing the books of Hiram Smedley, former county clerk, has been about completed by Prof. John D. Smith, the expert accountant, appointed by fiscal court. Mr. Smith is now collecting his data, and next week will prepare his report, which he will present to fiscal court. Many rumors have started as to what conditions the report will show, but something interesting is promised. The report will cover the years since Smedley entered the office of county clerk as a deputy until his resignation a few months ago. The work has required many weeks, and Professor Smith admits he found the books very complicated, and much work was necessary to find vouchers and compare with the books.

BANK CLEARINGS FOR WEEK OF FIVE DAYS EXCELLENT

Trade Conditions Locally and Elsewhere Satisfactory.

Agricultural Report Proves Pleasing.

BUSINESS REVIEW OF WEEK.

Clearings this week $750,016 Last week 784,875

Notwithstanding the fact that this week has only five business days, a good showing was made, as indicated by the bank clearings. June 30 the banks as well as many other manufacturing companies declared the semi-annual dividend, and this helped swell the figures. Last week with six business days the bank clearings ran slightly in advance, but this week has kept step with the last week in June.

It is all merchants have stimulated trade by a variety of cut price sales, and the usual stimulation of cash prices has made money move somewhat better. The weather was excessively hot during the week, and many people made an exodus to the springs and summer resorts. The railroads are enjoying a good passenger traffic, and many of the summer hotels are overflowing with rest seekers.

Crops in western Kentucky are reported in excellent shape. Particularly is corn making a splendid showing in the Purchase, and the yield promises to be fine. This is true over the entire country. From the market in New York the acreage is reported larger by 7,218,000 acres than last year and the present condition of the crop indicates that the harvest will be 3,161,900,000 bushels an increase of over 400,000,000 bushels over the 1908 crop, and by far the greatest crop on record. Some of the farmers report corn not flourishing in the bottoms, but the crops on well drained land and the hills is flourishing, and the outlook is auspicious.

Little wheat is grown in western Kentucky, but the few wheat growers have been delayed in threshing, owing to the wet weather. In New York the market reports that although the winter wheat went into the ground under adverse conditions, the improvement has been so conspicuous that the report places the crop in the point of promised yield among the best four in the last decade. Spring wheat is rated with a percentage of 92.7, with the exception of July, 1904, the best in eight years, and indicates a harvest, according to the new method of computation, of 253,796,000 bushels, which combined with the winter wheat would make a total crop of above 663,000,000 bushels, practically the yield of 1908.

Continued wet weather has been the occasion for some complaint by the farmers who are delayed with the work of the farm.

Park Commissioners to Mark Historic Spots

What do you know about the historical points of Paducah? The park commissioners wish to place a memorial tablet at every point of great historic interest in the city, and have requested the newspapers to announce the fact and suggest that any one who knows any points of importance to write the president of the board, Dr. D. G. Murrell, or the Evening Sun.

"There is just a world of points of great interest in Paducah," said Dr. Murrell today, in discussing the matter. "There is the spot on which Grant stood when he read his proclamation; the lot on which stood the house that Dickens, in his American notes, told about as being so odd, with its one-story building and two-story porch. The point on the river where the late Captain James Smith, a pioneer of the river herabouts, laid the first cable that was ever used in the world, should be marked, and so should the location of Lew Wallace's headquarters. Tablets should mark all the points of interest of the city, the headquarters of the Confederates, their hospitals, and so on. One has no comprehension of the many interesting tablets that could be gotten up until he investigates as I have revealed. I feel that there are a number of people in the city who know more than we do, and it is by these people that we hope to be aided to lots of historical points of more than passing interest."

At a meeting of the park commissioners Friday afternoon a huge anchor was ordered placed in Harrison park, at the river front. It is to be about twelve feet high and gilded, and at night will be lighted with an arc light. The word Paducah stands holdy out over the anchor, and will be easily read day or night.

The park commissioners also considered the Tenth street proposition at the meeting. They have found property owners along the proposed route so indifferent in some cases and others disposed to exact too much for their property. The probabilities are that the project will be abandoned and park sites secured in other localities where the sentiment of the people will prompt them to aid the board in its efforts. The commissioners will go over the city next week on an investigating tour with the view of taking options on small spots in the city that will afford plenty of room for play grounds.

Thirteen Prisoners Escape Jail.

By picking a hole in the north wall of the McCracken county jail over a dozen prisoners escaped this afternoon about 12:15 o'clock. After gaining the ground by sliding down a blanket, the men escaped from the enclosure of the concrete wall by dashing through the doorway of the engine room and ran south in the alley between Fifth and Sixth streets. The prisoners ran to Jackson street, where they scattered. Jonas Smith, colored, charged with murder, was caught on Jackson street fifteen minutes after the jail delivery. Searching parties are out this afternoon scouring the city for the escaped men.

The discovery of the escape was made by M. Riley and J. S. Finley, workmen engaged in repairing the boiler of the county heating plant. They were sitting in the engine room eating lunch when a negro approached, whom they thought was a trusty. The negro was quaking, and they asked the man what was the matter. In a minute several other negroes appeared at the door, and

Smith denied taking any part in the outbreak. He said he heard a noise and saw the white prisoners disappearing out of a hole and concluded he wanted to disappear, too. He climbed up to the hole and escaped, and was followed quickly by others.

The day was ideal for a delivery, and the work shows that it was planned by one that knew how. Workmen are repairing the boiler in the heating plant and the constant hammering drowned any noise that the prisoners made. The jail officials were in the front of the prison and could not detect the sounds.

The Escape.

Cloudburst at Sioux City Does Much Harm

Sioux City, Iowa, July 10.—A cloudburst a few miles above here caused the most disastrous flood in the history of the city. At noon one life was known to be lost and property damage is estimated at a million. Factories blew their whistles to warn people when the cloudburst came. Perry creek and Floyd river rose rapidly. A number of houses were washed away and the occupants were rescued by police patrol boats. Authorities are trying to prevent the waters spreading over the business district.

with an upraised brick-bat commanded: "Don't you mention this."

They dashed out of the engine room, and the workmen hastily notified Deputy Jailer Patillo Kirk, who was in the jail office.

County Jailer Baker and the police department were notified at once and men were on the trail in a few minutes after the break.

Capture of Jonas Smith.

Jonas Smith, colored, was the first prisoner captured. He was walking along Jackson street between Ninth and Tenth streets, when E. Choate, who is a relative of Patrolman W. M. Owen, recognized the features of the negro. He called to him, but Smith said he was not wanted and continued to walk coolly down the street. Choate rushed in a house and secured a pistol and returned to pursue the murderer. Smith made no attempt to run and admitted his name was Jonas Smith. When called on to halt Smith ran his hand in his pocket, but Choate covered him with his gun and held him until Patrolman Henry Singers arrived. Smith was taken back to the jail and locked up.

Smith denied taking any part in the outbreak. He said he heard a noise and saw the white prisoners disappearing out of a hole and concluded he wanted to disappear, too. He climbed up to the hole and escaped, and was followed quickly by others.

Dun's Review.
New York, July 10.—No one can now question the substantial character of the revival in the iron and steel trade which is rapidly rising to high water mark levels. The output of the principal producer has already reached within a moderate percentage of full capacity, and the railroads as well as builders in the leading branches of construction work are in the market with their orders. This wonderful change, in a short period, in the activity of the greatest manufacturing industry of the country; the bright outlook for crops, that of corn giving promise of unprecedented yield; the cheapness of money; and the fact that the tariff bill has been passed by the senate, are conspicuous features of the business situation. Naturally they serve to strengthen confidence and encourage new enterprises.

The manufacture of the trade revival is all the more remarkable because this is the usual season of crop uncertainty and midsummer morose-dullness. While higher prices in cotton goods are considered inevitable, purchasing conditions are not of a character to warrant an immediate rise in prices to cost levels warranted by current cotton values. The producers of worsted dress goods have opened spring lines at moderate advances ranging from 7 to 15 per cent. Buying in all dry goods lines were generally conservative despite the belief that textile lines are all tending higher.

Bank Clearings.

DANGERS FOR COMING FOLKS.

What May Happen if Young Women Study Kitchen Arts in Schools.
What will be the outcome of cooking courses after a generation of girls trained in kitchen arts at the public schools shall become wives and mothers? Is there not ground for grave apprehension lest the versatility and individuality of housekeepers shall suffer in an important respect? What an appalling condition would be brought about if all wives cooked the same and all husbands and sons had served to them the self-same dishes. Yet is not this the goal toward which the cooking courses tend? Uniformity, absolute uniformity in recipes, and table service must be the result of such uniformity in the training given the daughters of the household in the school kitchens.

Civilization shudders at the prospect. Society shrieks at the outlook. The young men thinking of taking unto themselves wives will cast about in vain for the girl who cooks as mother used to do. The fine originality, the practical talent, the savory and satisfactory substantiality of the old home cooking will be but a memory. Every man's wife will cook like his neighbors and that chief crown of glory will be lost to the woman in wedlock, the grounds for claiming that no other woman can cook as well as she. The dyspeptic protestor may or may not have good grounds for his complaint, but he certainly opens the eyes of the community to an impending tragedy—all housewives with cooking methods drawn from a single source and recipes all alike.—It is more American.

Pittsburgh Takes Two.

New York, July 10.—Thirty-five thousand persons rushed to the Polo grounds to see two games which were regarded as likely to furnish somewhat of a decisive indication of New York's chances to win the pennant this year. Outside was a crowd of 10,000 unable to get admission. But all these thousands retreated as hastily as they came, for it had been a most disastrous day, Pittsburgh winning both games with little trouble.

In this double victory and the incidental defeat of Chicago by Philadelphia, Pittsburgh strengthened her commanding lead in the pennant race over Chicago and New York.

London "Slave" Market.

There are whispers about that peculiarly humiliating form of slave traffic is going on, under our very noses, in the heart of the capital of civilization. For where there is a demand for a certain kind of labor, there sure will be someone enterprising enough to supply it. The slaves, I understand, are paraded before their lords, and in their most becoming garments, and exposed to the raking fire of half a hundred tortoise-shell lanterns. Intellectual, and even amiability, are not in request, but a presentable appearance and a semblance of good manners are considered indispensable, while a certain amount of agility is a sine qua non.

The human objects exhibited, strangely enough, do not appear to feel their position acutely, and are inclined to look upon the transaction as more or less in the nature of a joke. Yet it is nothing short of a sign of national degeneration that, while we cannot get a sufficiency of stalwart youths to join the Territorials, there are young men in London who are willing to be hired out, so to speak, for strange females for the evening. For the demand, I hasten to add, is for properly equipped dancing men, and the slave market is held at a certain modish club, where tea parties are given "to meet the hostesses of the season." The more youthful members of our aristocracy and plutocracy showing a decided disinclination to spend their evenings propelling unknown fountain pens round hot drawing rooms, dance-givers have been compelled to recruit their guests.—Sketch.

The Week In Society.

Byrd-Durden Wedding.

An attractive early morning wedding, charmingly simple in its appointments, beautiful in its solemnization, will be that of Miss Adelaide Byrd, of this city, to Mr. Walter Keirn Durden, of Lexington, Miss., on Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock in the Broadway Methodist church.

The church of the church will be made a bank of green with flowers effectively interspersed. The Reverend Grant T. Sullivan, D. D., the pastor of the church, will pronounce the ceremony. Mrs. Samuel H. Winstead will play the wedding music. The only attendants will be the sisters: Mr. Melville Byrd, Jr., brother of the bride; Mr. Ernest Bell, Mr. Will Henneberger, Mr. George Scott.

The bride will wear a beautiful lingerie frock of white, made of lace and trimmed in alternate rows of baby Irish and Valenciennes lace and medallions. Her hat is a white Neapolitan with the crown of lilac-of-the-valley and pink roses. She will carry a shower bouquet of lilac-of-the-valley.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple will leave for an extended eastern bridal trip. The bride's going-away gown is an artistic Directoire coat suit of shantung silk, in shades of burnished copper, with a black picture hat. After August 19 they will be at home in Lexington, Miss., where they will keep house.

Miss Byrd is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Byrd, 1943 Trimbale street, and has a host of friends in Paducah. Mr. Durden is a prominent merchant and cotton buyer of Lexington, and a leading citizen of that place.

HERPETH'S MISSION.

It Takes Away the Dread of Birthdays.

Nothing is more annoying to men and women of middle age than to see those unmistakable signs of age—thin hair and grayness approaching. But science has discovered that these conditions are no longer "unmistakable" evidences of old age, for the dandruff germ theory proves that even very young people may suffer hair loss, while those unfortunate enough to escape the ravages of the scalp germ, retain their abundant locks to a ripe old age. Newborn's Herpeth kills the dandruff germ and removes the risk of appearing old before your time. Save your hair and your feelings, by using the genuine Herpeth. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample of The Herpeth Co., Detroit, Mich. $1 bottles guaranteed. R. W. Walker Co., Special Agents.

ONLY 4 MORE WEEKS OF CONTEST YET REMAIN

Candidates Must Work Hard If They Desire to Win Prizes.

Interest Grows Greater Day After Day.

BEST WEEKS ARE THE LAST

VOTING LIMIT.

From this time, until further notice, no candidate will be permitted to cast more than enough certificates, or plunk slip votes, to place him more than 5,000 ahead of the leader at the preceding publication of scores. For instance, if the leader of the entire contest has 20,000 votes to his credit at the last publication of scores, a candidate will not be allowed to vote more than enough certificates to make his score 25,000 in the next publication. This restriction does not apply to the coupon votes clipped from The Sun or associate papers. No candidate will be permitted to lead two days in success, and if any other candidate has enough votes to pass him.

Four weeks from today and the ballots will be finally counted in The Sun and Associate Newspapers' Great Voting Contest.

There are just twenty-four more working days—a short enough time indeed, but plenty of time in which to win if no minutes are wasted. But from this time on there MUST be hard and systematic work on the part of those candidates who expect to win. This is what it takes and all that it takes. No delays, no putting off, simply hard work and the determination to make what time is left COUNT.

A month goes by in a hurry. Days slip into days and four weeks have rolled around almost before the fact is realized. But time is the servant of energy and haste, and those candidates who combine these qualities may be expected to do wonderful things before the seventh of next August.

A glance through today's list is enough to prove that there are already some wide-awake people in this race. If you have been reading the scores every day, you have noticed that some of them are gradually climbing up. The winners are coming to the front. The highest score today is nearly one hundred fifty thousand. By this time next Saturday, somebody is going to be voting around the two hundred fifty or three hundred thousand mark.

The contest is really warming up. Live candidates are making their work tell. There are still other live ones in the list who have not yet voted their strength or have not come to the realization of the work they had to do to keep among the leaders in this race, for the pace is hot and getting hotter every minute.

WATCH for the bonus announcement Monday, and don't forget that you cannot be numbered among the leaders if you do not hustle from now on.

Plunk Slips.

Please remember that it is very important that you send the plunk slips to us promptly, so that you may receive the proper credit for votes. (Standing of contestants at noon, July 9.)

The Broadway Knocker.

The horse a man once owned and the wife he's going to get are always the most perfect of their kind. Love may be blind, but the blindness is not incurable. Otherwise there would be no breach of promise suits.

Even when a man knows that he is on the wrong track he thinks his train of thought has the right of way. Married men wouldn't mind the coming and going of Easter so much if gowns and bonnets grew on trees as they did in Adam's time.

If the average man really knew himself he probably wouldn't be very proud of the acquaintance. To the writer of scandals there is no secret satisfaction in being anonymous that is far sweeter than fame. It takes a strong-minded woman to force her nickel on the street car conductor who has accidentally missed her.

Eve never left Adam at home to look after the children while she went about the country preaching woman's rights. You may not be able to do great things, but you can at least try to do the small things in a great way. Probably, Gladys, the best way to mark table linen is to leave the baby and a blackberry pie alone at the table for a few minutes.

Returned With Damages. Roger, the celebrated French tenor, on one occasion was engaged for the sum of 1,500 francs to sing at the house of a rich financier. Roger sang his first song magnificently; but no one paid him the slightest attention, and the guests talked their loudest. Presently the host thought the time had come for another song and sent for Roger. He could not be found, and that evening was soon no more. Next day a note came from him, accompanied by the sum of 2,000 francs. The note ran thus: "I have the honor to return the 1,500 francs which I received for singing at your party, and I beg leave to add 500 francs more for having so greatly disturbed the conversation of your guests."

Gossip is due to the fact that the world contains more talkers than thinkers. The rainy-day skirt was never intended for the tall woman with a staid stride.

Daily Thought.

"You may have a right to your own sorrow, but you have no right to throw their shadow in another's way."

Tom Targart has been exonerated of more things than most respectable men have ever been accused of.

In view of the position in which Inela finished in the second race yesterday, Chief Collins' order to enforce the "move on" ordinance is significant.

No matter whether you regard the removal of the six cent tax from leaf tobacco as a benefit or an injury, please remember that all his predecessors took it in talking, and Senator Bradley secured the amendment.

Let everybody, who knows of an historic spot in Paducah report to some member of the park board.

Don't assume that somebody else will tell or the board knows about it.

Markers at all historic spots will add greatly to the interest of visitors in Paducah. They will remember the city by her historical associations.

The markers will interest Paducahans in the history of their own city, and stimulate local pride.

THE TENTH STREET IMPROVEMENT.

It will be a pity if the city is compelled to drop the South Third street boulevard project, because large property owners wish to make the city pay more for their land than they say it is worth in their returns to the assessor for taxes. That boulevard would greatly enhance the value of property in the south side and redeem a bad place near the heart of the city. Moreover, it would afford the city a chance to give visitors coming by rail a fine first impression of the city. We know of no street that would take the place of the Tenth street project in the uniform development of a park system; but,

at the same time, we are opposed to the city paying out to the people, who will be benefited most, an exorbitant price for the distinguished privilege of doing them a favor.

THE OPTIMIST.

We love an optimist. Your true optimist is not the one who denies either the existence or the gravity of the evil manifestations, which the pessimist affirms; nor does he make light of them. The first is a bigot and the second a fool. The distinguishing characteristic of your true optimist is his unwavering faith in the ultimate triumph of right and justice, and he proves his faith by his belief that his part is to do his little best to promote their triumph. He recognizes evil as quickly as does the pessimist; but he says in his heart,

there must be a cause for this evil manifestation. Let us remove the cause and then we will have progressed. So, you see, the optimist is progressive. He does not expect the road of progress to be smooth going all the way. He does not sit in the cart and bewail the bumps, neither does he try to stop the vehicle. He just climbs out without a murmur and removes the rocks that block the wheels.

There are many lawless symptoms apparent in all sections of this country today to tickle the soul of the modern pessimist. But there is a precedent. It must have required all the faith of the most devoted optimist to see anything but anarchy and contempt of law in the Boston Tea

Party. It is easy enough now to look back and see that there was a principle involved. It was the cart of progress bumping over the rocky road of human development toward the goal of destiny eternally fixed by a divine hand.

We have men today, who don't wish the cart to go ahead at all, because they desire to use it in their private business; we have anarchists, who see the ultimate goal in the distance and wish to cut across the private property of the first named gentleman; and we have the pessimists, who sit in the cart and bewail the roughness of the road and the necessity for making the journey at all.

But the cart will go on, and attack the road, and the sooner the pessimist gets out and helps remove obstacles, the sooner the journey will be ended and we all shall become optimists.

THE SCHOOLS.

The school board is to be congratulated on cutting the floating debt

$7,500 during the school year, but Superintendent Carnegie and the trustees know of facts that turn the taste of that compliment to ashes in their mouths. They have been compelled to deny the schools some things that would have benefited the pupils.

Do the taxpayers grasp the significance of that statement? What has been saved has been through the denial of benefits to the children; and, yet, circumstances were such that the school board could do nothing else. The board inherited a burden of debt from a predecessor.

It spent its July, 1908, revenues paying off obligations of the year before.

It husbanded its resources, except as to fuel, for which it paid more than the city did; but again this July it spends a large part of its receipts to pay off the floating debt. When the fall term commences it will be forced to pinch in order to pay the teachers' salaries promptly.

We hope to keep this situation clearly before the people. The schools need more money. Supplies gradually wear out, the enrollment increases and other expenses heap up, even if we try only to keep the schools from retrograding; but we should go ahead. A business course is a great need in the high school.

It would increase the enrollment and attendance of boys fifty per cent.

Can one think of anything more desirable than that fifty per cent more boys from fifteen to nineteen years should remain in school, acquiring along with their business training, knowledge of English and the sciences?

tive citizens.

THE PUBLIC FORUM.

LOUISVILLE HERALD.

When the state takes account of Republican stewardship at the end of the present gubernatorial term no department will have more to its credit than that of education.

While in every phase of activity and development under the jurisdiction of the state authorities there has been evidenced the greatest energy and fidelity, the record made by Prof.

J. G. Crabbe, superintendent of public instruction, stands out distinctively

as one to which the administration may point with honest pride and assurance of public approval.

Not alone has there been a wonderful awakening of intelligent interest in school affairs throughout Kentucky, but we have made progress in the more liberal support of education that surpasses all achievements of previous regimes. Recently Professor

Crabbe announced that the per capita school tax for the fiscal year ending

June 30, 1909, would be $4. This is an increase of 40 cents over last year, and represents the largest per capita for the purpose in the history of the state.

Last year an increase of 20 cents was made, so that in all 60 cents per capita has been added to the available income for educational work in two years. This means much for the growth of the cause in which the loyalty of Professor Crabbe has been so wholly enlisted. It will go far to wipe out the blot of indifference to education that has rested against Kentucky in the honor roll of states.

It will contribute largely to bring the commonwealth nearer the top of that honor roll and to give it the place it ought to hold when its natural advantages and commercial prosperity

BOMB THROWING CHARGED.

Chicagoans Implicated in Attempts to Blow Up Gambling Houses.

Chicago, July 10.—Vincent A. Altman, 32 years old, was formally charged here with having perpetrated the last and most serious bomb outrage in Chicago—that in the rear of 100 Washington street—two weeks ago. Whether he is to be charged with more than a score of previous bomb throwing outrages could not be learned. His lawyer, at the request of State's Attorney Wayman, was fixed at $50,000 by Judge McSurely. The state's attorney intimated that additional charges would be filed.

Attorney James T. Brady sought to have the prisoner released under a writ of habeas corpus, but withdrew his application when State's Attorney Wayman informed the court that additional charges were to be brought against the prisoner.

The explosion of the bomb in the rear of 100 Washington street did damage estimated at $100,000. Altman is said to be a former policeman, who was dismissed for alleged mistreatment of a citizen.

MAJOR LONG KILLED.

Beloved Army Officer Run Down by Automobile.

Washington, July 10.—Major J. W. Long, U. S. A., retired, was run down here by an automobile, carried to the Russian embassy and died three hours later at the emergency hospital. The automobile was driven by J. W. Lawrence, who was learning to operate the machine. Andrew Y. Bradley, a Washington lawyer, and Gael Green, who was instructing Lawrence, were the other occupants. Green and Lawrence were arrested on the charge of manslaughter and released on bond. Major Long had an aversion to automobiles, and two days before the accident declared: "If I had my way I would smash and burn every automobile in the District of Columbia."

Major Long was a native of North Carolina and appointed to the army from New York. He formerly was superintendent of the Michigan state soldiers' home.

ANOTHER WEDDING

AS A RESULT OF NIGHT RIDER TROUBLES

James Dorris, of Owensboro, and Miss Landers, of Princeton, Married in Evansville.

Cupid played a pretty little romance with an Owensboro boy, commencing during the night rider troubles in western Kentucky and culminating with a marriage Wednesday at the Vendome hotel in Evansville, where James B. Dorris was united in marriage to Miss Mary Landers, of Princeton, Ky. The young couple eloped from the home of the young woman on Wednesday morning. Young Dorris is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Dorris, of Owensboro and recently took a position in the Illinois Central office at Princeton.

Last year when Company C, of the Third regiment, Kentucky National Guards was stationed at Princeton, Dorris was the first sergeant of the company and met his bride for the first time. The attachment continued and young Dorris returned to Owensboro with the soldiers. His marriage will come as a complete surprise to his friends.—Owensboro Messenger.

NO PEACHES ON SUNDAY.

Gov. Brown Will Not Allow Planters To Pluck Crop.

Atlanta, Ga., July 10.—A peach is a peach on Sunday, and while you may pluck it on week days, you are a criminal if you pluck it on the Sabbath. Gov. Brown has so decided and has put the great seal of the state of Georgia upon his decision.

From Norwood, Ga., came a hurried telegram today, signed by M. Y. Serugga, and reciting how the rain had delayed the picking of the Elberta peaches. If the growers were not permitted to gather the fruit on Sunday they would lose much fruit and money. Would the governor issue a proclamation permitting labor on the Sabbath—for the sake of the Georgia peaches?

The governor took the communication to Attorney-General Hart. The attorney-general gave it deep thought, and then shook his head. The governor replied:

"While I sympathize with the peach growers, the executive has no authority to suspend a criminal law. I can not, therefore, issue the proclamation you desire."

WILL SEGREGATE SALOONS

Bristol Temperance Leaders Begin a Fight.

Bristol, Va., July 10.—A fight was today launched by the temperance leaders for segregation of the saloons and strict regulation under an excise commission, which Judge Kelly will be asked to appoint. License can not be granted until the first Monday in August, as court has been adjourned until that time.

The temperance people will ask that no saloons be allowed on State street, the principal business thoroughfare, and half of which is in Tennessee, and it is believed that the court will grant this request.

It now seems certain that Bristol will get about fifty saloons and will order liquor houses, as the liquor people believe they can supply much of the prohibition south from this point. Besides the ex-liquor dealers of this city who will go back into business, despite the license of $2,000 a year, whisky men will come from Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Memphis, Nashville, Richmond, Chattanooga, Louisville and other points.

GIVE BACK FIGUREHEADS.

States Can Claim Shining Marks on Battleships.

Washington, July 10.—The figurehead of the battleship Mississippi will be given to the state of Mississippi if Governor Noel will make a formal request for it. Representative Humphreys today received a letter to that effect from Secretary Meyer in answer to the congressman's request that the figurehead be given to the state.

The suggestion that Governor Noel ask for it was made so as to have the donation made in an official manner.

The probability is that the figureheads of all battleships will be donated to the states the names of which they bear. They are to be removed because they offer too shining marks for searchlights.

An Uncolored Job.

"Dear Sir," said an applicant for a position to the secretary of the treasury, according to the Saturday Evening Post, "I am very anxious to obtain remunerative employment in the treasury department. While my educational advantages do not qualify me for any of the higher places, I could fill one of the minor places to advantage, and I respectfully apply for the position of Chief Cuspidorian of the Department."

The letter came to Assistant Secretary Reynolds for reply, and he wrote as follows:

Dear Sir—I regret very much that nothing can be done for you. There is no such place as Chief Cuspidorian. You have coined the word, but I can not coin the job."

Ecuador exports about 20,000 tons of vegetable ivory annually.

PRISONERS

diameter. The rod was screwed into the window sill and was used to prop the window open. With this the men picked out the mortar between the bricks and made a hole about one foot high and eighteen inches wide. The hole is about fourteen feet from the ground and the men used a blanket to slide down to the ground, although some of them fell out of the hole, striking their heads on the ground.

Louis Futtrell Remains.

Louis Futtrell, charged with murder, is the head cellman, and made no attempt to escape. With his head protruding from the hole he told the jail officials about the escape. From the facts it is shown that the escape was planned carefully. Every night the prisoners are kept in the round cage, but every morning at 7 o'clock they are permitted to have the corridor. Futtrell watches over the prisoners.

This morning, he said, as soon as the prisoners were released they engaged him in a card game on the south side of the corridor. When he wanted to quit, they insisted that the game should continue. He played until a few minutes after noon, and then he was attracted by a scuffling. He ran to the north side and the negroes were escaping. He was warned not to give the alarm, he says.

The Search.

As soon as the alarm was given the remaining prisoners were locked in their cells and the jail officials began searching for the prisoners. The white prisoners left in jail are: Louis Futtrell, Pete Griffin, Frank Ross, Will Summers, Charles Arnold and A. M. Melton. There were 14 white prisoners and 22 colored men.

The women are confined on the third floor, and could not escape. Hilram Smedley is in a private cell in the front of the jail. When the prisoners escaped Mrs. Smedley was in the cell with her husband and was forced to remain for some time as the jail officials left with the keys.

Early this morning Finley and Riley, the workmen in the engine room saw the prisoners with blankets and they seemed to be climbing them. The remark was heard that, "That will be strong enough." and it is presumed that they were tying the blankets then, although the purpose was not suspected.

Deputy Jailer Kirk said he did not hear the picking up account of the noise in the engine room. The kitchen of the jail is on the south side, but only a space of several feet is between the jail wall and the coarser wall. It is not often that the jailer has occasion to be there. As each brick was loosened it was removed and piled inside the jail. Not a brick was dropped to the ground.

It has been about ten years since a hole was punched in the wall, although prisoners have escaped from the jail since then. While Joe Miller was jailer a hole was cut in the south wall of the jail. The jail wall is about eighteen inches thick, and is not protected on the inside by a lining of metal.

All the prisoners were awaiting trial at the coming term of the September term of court. Cicero Anderson is suspected of being one of the leaders. He killed a man several years ago but was released from the penitentiary, and has been in jail several times since. He was locked up the last time about two weeks ago for malicious shooting. George Wright is a kypsy and was charged with stealing horses from a farmer on the Benton road.

NEWS OF COURTS

In County Court.

The appraisers of the estate of the late William Bornemann have filed their report, which shows the estate to be worth $81,173.88, two-thirds of which is life insurance. J. C. Utterback, W. A. Martin and Don Gilberto were the appraisers.

In Bankruptcy.

In the case of Thomas C. Leech, a bankrupt, the United States court of appeals at Cincinnati has held that the two diamond rings presented by Leech to his wife are wearing apparel and are exempt from the claims of creditors. The rings were valued at $600. Judge E. W. Bagby, referee in bankruptcy, held the rings liable, but Judge Evans reversed the decision, and he was sustained by the court of appeals.

The court of appeals also affirmed the decision in the bankruptcy case of Starks-Ullman Saddlery company in the claims of the American Pad and Textile company and Bond Allen, creditors. They sought to establish liens under the Kentucky statutes, and Referee Bagby denied the liens and both courts sustained his decision. The decision means a loss to the creditors.

In Police Court.

The docket in police court has been slender for several days. The police have found little to occupy their attention. The docket was: Breach of peace—Will Herbst, M. Detzel, C. King and John Williams, judgment; C. E. Hile and Rick Foster, $4 each. Carrying weapons concealed—C. H. Arnold, $30 and costs and ten days in the county jail.

Sues for Divorce.

Married six months, separated four days, Gladys Gray has filed suit for divorce from her husband, Clarence Gray. The couple was married in Metropolis January 19, 1909, and separated July 6, 1909. For her support she asks $37 a month, pending the action of her suit, and sues for $1,000 alimony. She also asks that her maiden name, Gladys Stewart, be restored. An attachment was issued on Gray's property.

ANTI-CIGARETTE LAW HELD UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

Tacoma, Wash., July 10.—Judge Clifford, of the superior court, declared the new state anti-cigarette law unconstitutional on the ground that it is in conflict with the interstate commerce law.

The Emperor's Tomb Duster.

Frenchmen of classes dearly love titles. The manager of a Paris insurance company was recently decorated with the Legion of Honor, so his clerks presented to him a piece of plate, to which their visiting cards were attached. He was amused by the visiting card of the office "boy," an old, red whiskered soldier from the invalids, who was employed to open the office door from 9 to 4. Under the man's name was the title "The Emperor's Orderly." He sent for the old soldier. "Of what emperor are you the orderly, and how?" he asked. The old invalid drew himself up to attention. "I am the orderly of the emperor," he said. "Napoleon, le Petit Caporal." "But he is dead. He has been dead some time," answered the puzzled manager. "I dust his tomb for him," answered the old soldier.—New York Tribune.

Evans vs. Gardner.

Chicago, Ill., July 10.—The semi-final round of the open tournament of the Westward Ho Golf club resulted in victories for Charles Evans, Jr., and Robert Gardner, and they will meet in the 36-hole finals today. Evans defeated Paul Hunter 1 up; Gardner beat C. B. Revell, 6 up 4 to play.

Death For Robbery.

St. Petersburg, July 10.—Szlunoff, a reporter for the Bourge Gazette and other St. Petersburg papers, was today sentenced to death by a military court on a charge of robbing a tea store two years ago. Prior to this robbery M. Szlunoff was sentenced by the court to eight years' penal servitude for attempting to rob the cashier's office of the imperial theater, but he continued his newspaper work in St. Petersburg under an assumed name. The authorities say that the robberies were committed to provide revolutionary funds.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES CUT SCHOOL DEBT

FLOATING OBLIGATIONS NOW $7,500 LESS THAN LAST YEAR

Board Meets and Fills Vacancies in the Teaching Force and Elects Janitors.

TRUANT OFFICER NOT NAMED

With strict economy, which sometimes seemed to cramp the administration of school affairs, the school board managed to cut down the floating debt $7,500 and at the close of schools this year the finance committee reported a debt of $10,500. The city treasurer turned over to the schools $12,000, which will more than wipe out the obligation; but does not relieve the situation, since the money received in July belongs to the succeeding school year, and a deficit will appear in the funds early in the fall, and the same cramping economy will be necessitated next year, with growing demands on the resources of the schools, on account of necessities they were denied this year.

The board also ascertained that it will receive $2,400 more than usual from the state this year, because the present state administration has succeeded in raising the per capita for school children from $3.60 to $1. Superintendent Carnagey suggested changing the fiscal year end to June 30. That would conform to the state school system's fiscal year, and besides would conform to the true end of the school year.

The board allowed claims amounting to $436.91.

Superintendent's Report.
Superintendent Carnagey's report follows:

Honorable Board of Education, City, Gentlemen: I submit the report for the school month ending June 11, 1936. This school month, the closing one of the year, has but 15 school days.

New pupils entered, 0; re-entered pupils, 56; belonging on May 21, close of last month, 2,621; total enrollment for the month, 2,696; lost by withdrawals, 117; number belonging on June 11, 2,579; average daily attendance, 2,127; average daily absence, 159; average daily number belonging, 2,585; number cases of tardiness, 198; number cases of corporal punishment, 1; number cases of truancy, 2; number tuition pupils, 23; total enrollment to date, 2,567. This month closes our work for the year 1935-1936. The work has moved on without serious interruption except that three of the teachers were sick with malarial or typhoid fever. However we were fortunate in having experienced teachers who acted as substitutes and thus the work was carried on without serious loss to the pupils.

I am glad to report that our pupils have been regular in attendance as shown by the figures I have just read.

I shall not, at this time, enter into a detailed account of our year's work, as that will be covered by my annual report to be submitted to you at your regular meeting in August. I should like to recommend that you consider a change in your rules and regulations, placing the end of 2 ADD School. Mr. McDuffy, the school's financial year on June 30, so as to make it conform to the date used by the state department.

Very truly,
J. A. CARNAGEY, Supt.

Teachers and Janitors.
Upon the recommendation of Supt. Carnagey the board elected Miss Lucy Kinney and Miss Olive M. Rusler to fill vacancies in the High school faculty. Miss Mary Bondurant was elected as a grade teacher and Miss Lucy Moore, a former teacher who resigned some time ago on account of her health, was elected as a regular substitute. Misses Kinney and Rusler will fill the places of Miss Kathryn Kyser and Miss Anna Hird Stewart, of the High school faculty, who resigned. Miss Bondurant was elected to fill the place of Miss Addie Byrd, who is to be married next week. The resignation of Miss Stewart was accepted by the board.

The following janitors were elected as recommended by Fred Hoyer, superintendent of the buildings: James Jordan, Washington building; J. W. Hutchins, Whittier; William Suddeh, Longfellow; Anthony Howell, Garfield; Dan Alexander, Lincoln; Sam Draffen, Jefferson; F. A. Scott, McKinley; Mary Coover, Lee, and J. A. Bundesman, Franklin. Mr. Hoyer informed the board that all were the same janitors as last year except J. A. Bundesman, at the Franklin school, and F. A. Scott, at the McKinley. Mr. Scott takes the place of George Green, who resigned.

Truant Officer.
The question of electing a truant officer, as the school laws require, provoked considerable discussion. The laws provide that the truant officer shall be paid not less than $1 or more than $2.50 per day. The salary was fixed at $50 per month on motion of Mr. Kelly. Nominations were then in order and Mr. Trendway nominated George Green, ex-janitor at the McKinley building. Supt. Carnagey read an application from W. T. Byrd for the office. As the requirements for the position are broad the board decided to leave the appointment of the officer with Professor Carnagey and President Ellis, of the school board.

Supplies and Improvements.
The contract for installing an electric signal system in the High school was let to the firm of Katterjohn & Lally, for $116, the lowest bidder. The High school Electrical company bid $18. The system will be a push button in the High school study hall electric buzzers in all the rooms. This will do away with clocks, with the exception of the study hall. The contract includes a gang to be placed above the doors leading into the auditorium.

The F. L. Gardner Coal company was awarded the contract to furnish the schools with coal for the coming school year. Their bid was $1.71 per ton of mine run coal, which was adopted by the board for school use. Bids were submitted by about ten firms.

Superintendent Carnagey's long desire for a system of maps for the schools was gratified when the board authorized him to close contracts for maps. Geography maps will be purchased from a Cincinnati firm while a set of history maps will be purchased from a Philadelphia concern. They will cost $252. Superintendent Carnagey considers maps essential in school work and the school has been without them for many years.

The monthly report of Fred Hoyer was received and filed.

Mr. Hoyer was instructed to make all necessary repairs before the schools re-open and to have the school roofs painted.

The committee on supplies was authorized to purchase a supply of "dustdown," which is used in sweeping the school floors.

The committee on supplies was given further time to make recommendations for the repair and purchase of clocks for the schools, and they could not arrive at a decision last night. Mr. Kelly, chairman of the committee, said he had secured a jeweler who visited the buildings and looked over the clocks, who said that only about 40 were worth fixing. There are 56 clocks. He said the jeweler agreed to repair those worthy of such for 50 cents each and to keep them in repair for one year. He recommended the purchase of 16 electrical clocks at a cost of $12 each.

J. L. Wanner, another jeweler who was present, said that he had seen the clocks and all could be repaired and made good. He suggested that they be fastened to boards and nailed on the walls in order that they might not be interfered with and also that they be wound up by one man regularly. He agreed to repair all clocks for 75 cents each and keep them running. In case any refused to run he agreed to replace it with a new clock of the same make.

Present last night were: Ellis, Karnes, Kelly, Judd, Pettit, Trendway, Winstead, Clements and Price.

THE UNCERTAIN RED RACE.

Indians Supposed to Be Decreasing in Numbers, But Good Judges Say No.

The Canadians announce with an air of surprise and regret that during the last ten years the Indian population of the Dominion has increased 10,000. There are here the red man who is dying out is the one who wears blanket and feathers. The aborigine himself, now disguised to some extent in derby hat and store clothes, persists.

Indians in the United States number about 275,000. Almost one-half of them wear the garb of the whites. One-fourth of them speak and read English. One-sixth of them occupy the border land between savagery and civilization, influenced to some extent by the customs of the Caucasians but still clinging to many of the practices of barbarism. More than 100,000 Indians live in Oklahoma. The peaceable Pueblo Indians of the south west number 75,000. The noble red man of the books, of the war bonnet and of the tomahawk, is found chiefly in the Dakotas and Montana.

There is no doubt about the practical extinction of some of the eastern tribes, but good judges are of the opinion that there are now as many

FARMERS TO REAP A VAST HARVEST

GOVERNMENT JULY CROP STATISTICS INDICATE

Large Yield—Value of Five Leading Cereals Now Estimated to Be Worth $2,700,000,000.

CORN GOES OVER 3 BILLIONS.

The greatest crop of cereals ever raised in the United States is growing to maturity, according to indications in the July report of the department of agriculture. A gain of 722,000,000 bushels in all grains over the totals of 1935 is promised and the record yield of 1906 will be exceeded.

Corn for the first time passed the 3,000,000,000 mark, and oats are put at more than 1,000,000,000 bushels. The values of these great farm products, on the basis of probable prices will approach $2,750,000,000. December corn closed on the board of trade yesterday at 54 cents. Figuring the crop at worth 50 cents to the farmer, wheat at 50, oats at 40, rye at 70, and barley at 50, these totals are obtained:

Corn . . . . . $1,558,000,000
Wheat . . . . . 623,000,000
Oats . . . . . 412,000,000
Barley . . . . . 95,000,000
Rye . . . . . 21,000,000

Total . . . . . $2,709,000,000

Great Volume of Breadstuffs.

The report of the department of agriculture does not indicate that there will be a serious shortage of breadstuffs in this country this year, although the figures to date show a considerable loss in winter wheat as compared with a year ago, the estimated loss in round numbers being 41,000,000 bushels.

To a considerable extent this is offset by a larger acreage and a greater yield of spring wheat which brings the total indicated crop of wheat up to 693,000,000 bushels, as compared with 664,000,000 bushels at the same time in 1935. Some important factors in the trade figure that the consumptive demand has grown enough to absorb this difference and that before the entire crop is harvested we will run into a period of actual shortages rather than a surplus. It is also figured that foreign requirements easily will take all wheat which is not needed for domestic purposes as crop conditions are generally understood to be unsatisfactory in most of the old world grain raising districts.

Winter Wheat Improves.
The condition of winter wheat showed an improvement of 1.7 points over the preceding month and about as much as compared with the corresponding month last year. The condition of spring wheat shows a loss of 2.5 points as compared with that of June 1 this year, but it showed an improvement of 3.3 points over July 1, 1935. This is taken as important and as crop conditions are considered almost ideal at the present time, and barring accident there is now a general feeling that bountiful supplies will be realized.

An important feature of the report was the estimate showing the amount of wheat left in farmers' hands to be a trifle more than 15,000,000 bushels. This is a great deal less than had been expected and was a big surprise to many who had figured on a much larger amount.

Tremendous Corn Promise.
The preliminary estimate of the area of corn planted is placed at 109,000,000 acres, an increase of 7,218,000 acres, or 7.1 per cent as compared with the final estimate of last year's acreage. The average condition of this crop on July 1 was 89.2 as compared with 82.5 a year ago, and suggests a crop of 3,115,000,000 bushels. This is the largest indicated yield in the history of the agricultural department.

Notice to Contractors.
Bids will be received on Tuesday, July 13, 1936, at 2:30 o'clock p. m., by the Board of Public Works at their office in the city hall, for the following work:

What has become of the dirt?
That's the first question you ask when you rinse out the clothes after they've been soaped with Fels-Naptha and soaked in cool or lukewarm water.

The clothes are white and clean. The dirt's gone.

What became of it? Here's the answer.

Fels-Naptha Soap acts on dirt like water does sugar; dissolves it; separates it into tiny particles that are carried away by the rinsing water.

Fels-Naptha Soap takes the place of boiling.

Makes the clothes whiter and cleaner without it.

Dirt doesn't need to be rubbed out when it's dissolved.

Do you wonder that women who use Fels-Naptha Soap in Winter or Summer are able to do their washing in one-half the time with one-fourth the work required by the old way?

When you try it yourself, follow directions printed on the red and green wrapper.

OIL KING GIVES

TEN MILLION

INCREASES DONATION TO EDUCATION BOARD.

Took Away Obligation Which Compelled Board to Hold Perpetuity Funds Contributed by Him.

HIS TOTAL DONATION $52,000,000

New York, July 10.—John D. Rockefeller increased his donations to the general educational board to hold in perpetuity funds contributed by him. The gift announced by Frederick T. Gates, chairman of the board, brings Rockefeller's donations to the general education board to $52,000,000. It was contributed according to a statement made by Chairman Gates, because the income of the present fund available for appropriation had been exhausted and larger income to meet educational needs of great importance had become necessary.

Rockefeller's action in empowering the board and its successors to distribute the principal of funds contributed by him upon an affirmative vote of one-third of its members is said to have been taken in consideration of the possibility, now remote, that at some future time the object and purpose of the Rockefeller foundation might become obsolete. Under the original conditions imposed the fund would have had to continue in perpetuity, irrespective of whether public demand for its continuance existed or not. The board made suitable acknowledgement of the gift in an official letter.

A Long Journey By Water.

All the way from Johnstown, Pa., to New Orleans in an open rowboat is a long trip, but John Wille, a young man of Johnstown, is en route down the Ohio river. He has left Henderson and probably will arrive in Paducah in a few days. No attempt to break records is made. Mr. Wille is a botanist and he makes frequent stops on his tedious journey to collect specimens. So far he has had an interesting trip down the river although he has only fairly begun his long journey.
